CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Ill., October 16.—Stop-loss selling on a large scale broke the wheat market today, notwithstanding that the season's low price record already had been smashed twice in the previous forty-eight hours. Bearishness in Wall Street had much influence. There was a heavy feeling at the close, which ranged 14.6145c. under last night. Corn finished 4.c. off to a shade up; oats 1c. decline and provisions varying from 5c. ioss to a rise of 1c.

Leading futures ranged as follows:

in a point or two of the best. Numerous private reports were received from Texas points during the day claiming that both the grade and quantity of the crop had been seriously damaged by excessive rainfail and these advices probably made more impression on sentiment owing to the renewed rains. # There Are Many strong trust companies in Chicago, but the greatest, in our opinion, is the one that makes its specialty in the fiduciary line.

Both Chief Justice Fuller and Marshall Field named that institution their co-executor and trustee -one worth a million, the other one hundred million.

THE POINT:

Like many other wise men, they selected a Trust Company to handle their estates.

We cordially invite interviews on the subject of wills and trusts.

Sentenced to Five Years in Prison for Attempted Criminal Attack.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hampton, Va., October 16.—Edward Hatton, a member of the National Soldiers' Home Band, to-day pleaded guilty in the Circuit Court to attempting a criminal attack upon Mrs. William criminal attack upon Mrs. William Croston, wife of the chief engineer of the Newport News and Old Point Railway and Electric Company. He was sentenced to five years in the peniten-tiary. The verdict was a compromise, as Mrs. Croston was unable to appear in court, and F. S. Collier, representing Hatton, offered to accept a term of five years for his client, which offer was accepted by the State. Hatton held up Mrs. Croston on the road leading to the home on a Sunday morning and drag-ged her into a cornfield. She fought him away and saved herself. Hatton has a wife and child living in Florida. INCORPORATED 1832.
